BELDAME HANDICAP WINNER

Crocus Easily Takes Good Stake Race for Her Owner.

Georgie Runs a Fast Mile in Defeating Wyoming—Old Prince of Como Wins.

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., September 23.—The Beldame Handicap for two-year-old fillies at five-eighths of a mile featured the card at Aqueduct this afternoon. H. P. Whitney's Crocus, by Broomstick—Inaugural, proved an easy winner, with E. F. Whitney's By Jiminy second and the Foreign Stable's Ten-Lee third. The field was well bunched when it rounded the elbow out of the chute. At this point jockey Ensor brought Crocus into the lead, which she held to the finish, having an advance of three lengths over By Jiminy. The latter ran impressively. From a slow beginning she worked her way through the middle of the field and got up in the last twenty yards to beat Ten-Lee, the second choice, for second place. Crocus closed at odds-on. The stakes were worth $3,725 to the winner.

Withdrawals reduced the third race, a purse at one mile, to four starters. Wyoming was installed an odds-on choice, but in the running he followed the Redstone Stable's Star Shoot—Fair Atalanta colt Georgie from the rise of the barrier and at the finish was four lengths back of Georgie. Jockey Callahan was off quickly with Georgie and, giving him a perfect ride, finished the mile in 1:38. Wyoming was doing his best under a vigorous ride from jockey Ensor, but he could never get up. Albert A. was third three lengths in front of Anniversary.

W. Gentry, colored steeplechase jockey, made good in his first mount over the obstacles when he rode Fair Mac to victory in the second race. Only three started, Surf ruling a slight choice over Fair Mac. These two raced together most of the way. At the last jump Fair Mac drew away and was twelve lengths in front at the finish. Prince Hal II. was a distant follower throughout.

Fourteen of the overnight entries were scratched out of the opening dash, leaving only seven to contest. Prince of Como was made the favorite and he won easily from The Nephew, second choice, with Burgoyne third. The latter was the pacemaker until the field straightened out in the stretch, when Prince of Como raced into the lead and held it to the end. The Nephew began slowly, but closed up ground and came fast in the last sixteenth and beat Burgoyne a half length for second place.

P. J. Lavin claimed The Nephew from Frederick Johnson out of the first race for $2,000.

M. Kornbloom purchased Pierre-a-Feu from L. W. Garth on private terms. The horse will be trained by E. D. Springer.

John E. Madden, who has been in Kentucky for the past week, returned to Aqueduct.

Col. E. B. Cassatt, who formerly raced under the tricolor worn by The Bard and other great racers, was a visitor at Aqueduct.

THE TETRARCH'S STAYING SON

Caligula, a gray son of The Tetrarch, has won the last and longest of the classic races, and so revived, to settle in an unexpected manner, a controversy which had formed an outstanding feature of the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby. The failure of Tetratema at Epsom appeared to close the argument of the stamina of The Tetrarch's stock to date, and those who had opposed the Derby favorite on this point were satisfied in their judgment. Caligula's dam, Snoot, was herself a sprinter, which fact adds considerable interest to the turn of events. The race possessed many romantic features, and the story of a young nobleman, who, after spending a large amount of money on bloodstock without achieving success commensurate with the outlay, parts with the eventual St. Leger winner on the eve of the race to a native of India, who began his career as an owner in a humble way with racing ponies, might well have been lifted straight from the pages of a Nat Gould novel. A. Smith gained his first classic success on a chance mount after just missing two Derby victories in successive years, while incident is added by a most remarkable demonstration against the favorite on the part of the ring. As the race approached, the bookmakers fielded with ever-increasing freedom against Spion Kop, so that eventually 3 to 1 was laid against his winning, and even money against him for a place.—London Sportsman.

FRENCH TURF'S LEADING WINNERS

Winners of $60,000 and over on the French turf up to September 1 were as follows:

Owners.	Wins.	Amounts.
A. Eknayan	49	$140,072
*W. K. Vanderbilt	33
J. Rutgers Le Roy	16	133,644
Baron Ed de Rothschild	35	127,205
James Hennessy	20	102,870
A. K. Macomber	23	88,017
Capt. J. D. Cohn	26	78,398
E. D. Saint-Alary	31	66,265

*At the time of Mr. Vanderbilt's death the amount won by his horses was $103,134.

INDIAN OWNERS SCORE IN ENGLAND

Three consecutive races at Doncaster St. Leger day were won by persons with Indian interests. First was Mr. Galstaun, who was plucky enough to buy Double Dew, with no previous form, out of a selling race two or three weeks ago. Then came Mr. Golculdas' success in the St. Leger with Caligula, purchased only a few days before the race from Lord Wilton, and, to complete the Indian "hat-trick," Mrs. S. Whalen's Honest Penny won the Bradgate Park Nursery.

ORDINARY CARD AT HAVRE

Chasseur Triumphs Over Columbine and Gath in Main Race of Day.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., September 23.—The Sinepuxent Purse at a mile and seventy yards for four-year-olds and over featured a cheap card at Havre today. The winner turned up in M. J. Murphy's Chasseur, which triumphed over W. G. Forman's Columbine and J. E. Griffith's Gath. Jockeys played an important part in the decision. Coltiletti, whose poor riding went a long way toward beating Chasseur on the occasion of the colt's last appearance, rode him perfectly today. He took the Murphy color-bearer away quickly and then, saving him behind the pacemaker, called on him at precisely the right moment to win by a half length, going away from the tiring Columbine, which was taken wide at the first turn by Obert and allowed to make her move a bit prematurely.

After The Baggage won the opening race she was claimed by Mrs. R. I. Miller for $3,500.

J. Kennedy claimed Brisk, winner of the third race, from C. C. Smithson, but the claim is held up on a protest of lack of funds. Butwell rode the winner, which won easily.

Jockey Wessler was suspended for the meeting for rough riding in the fifth.

Edward B. McLean had the satisfaction of seeing a horse of his own breeding win this afternoon when The Baggage showed a clean pair of heels to J. W. McClelland's Wild Thoughts in the opening dash. The latter was the favorite, but at no time proved dangerous, the McLean filly holding a safe lead throughout.

Captain Parr scored another victory through the field when his three-year-old Ireland accounted for the steeplechase. Ireland displayed good form, fenced faultlessly and looks like a promising jumper.

The haltermen had a field day Wednesday. Seven horses changed hands during the day by the claiming route. C. Koehler started the war taking the two-year-old Lusmore out of the first race from Mrs. Wm. Jelfords for $2,000. Mumbo Jumbo, winner of the third race in the interests of C. Deven, was taken by W. E. Jones for $1,800. E. B. McLean claimed Sugarmint out of the fourth from N. S. Vail, paying $2,300 for the filly. Johnny Marino, the New Orleans sportsman, paid $3,250 for J. H. Louchheim's Master Bill in the sixth and G. W. Foreman took Sam Lewis' Manoevre out of the same race for $3,175. Ral Parr claimed Fizer in the last for $2,005 and A. Hill got Kallipolis for $1,880.

E. G. Vivell returned from New York today, where he went in the interest of A. M. Orpen in the promotion of the Man o' War-Sir Barton-Exterminator race. Mr. Orpen, owner of the Kenilworth track, is expected here soon.

Jockey J. W. O'Brien left here for Toronto to ride on the flat. J. W. Healy will make his mounts.

Bill Keating has taken over the book of the apprentice H. Remmert, who is under contract to J. B. Dunn.

Milton Smith bought Tantalus from J. R. Skinker at private terms.

GREAT ENGLISH SALE FIGURES

(BY E. E. COUSSELL.)

DONCASTER, England, September 12.—Most records were broken at the Doncaster yearling sales held on September 7, 8, 9 and 10. This was in spite of the shadow of a national coal strike, with all its devastating consequences. Truly the results were marvelous in view of all the conditions. Most people were quite prepared for a slump in prices as compared with 1919. The result was the grand total of $1,375,800, and was nearly $260,000 in advance of last year. The only record not exceeded was the average on the third day, but those on the other three days easily surpassed the best possible, as will be gleaned from the following figures.

The 1920 sales figures were these:

Days.	Lots sold.	Total.	Average.
First	52	$147,825	$2,745
Second	79	309,800	3,920
Third	72	470,375	6,532
Fourth	69	447,900	6,490
Totals	272	$1,375,800	$5,060

The sales figures of 1919 were as follows:

Days.	Lots sold.	Total.	Average.
First	41	$105,200	$2,445
Second	91	269,490	3,745
Third	95	415,875	7,305
Fourth	64	316,725	5,035
Totals	291	$1,107,290	$3,805

The previous sales and average as shown by the Doncaster transactions in 1913 are as follows:

Days.	Lots sold.	Total.	Average.
First	41	$105,200	$2,565
Second	91	269,490	2,960
Third	95	415,875	4,375
Fourth	94	316,725	3,365
Totals	321	$1,107,290	$3,419

THOROUGHBRED ASSOCIATION MEETS

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 23.—The Thoroughbred Horse Association at the semi-annual meeting of its members here tonight went on record as being opposed to racing at New Orleans during Lent.

President Hal Price Headley was authorized to appoint committees to confer with representatives of the racing associations at New Orleans (Fair Grounds and Jefferson Park), Havana and Tijuana relative to purses and stakes and rules for winter racing and submit same to the groups of horsemen who will race at the respective tracks for their approval or rejection.

It was also voted that each group will appoint a committee of their members who shall hear all complaints, suggestions and recommendations from horsemen or the associations and submit same to the directors of the Thoroughbred Horse Association.

The following were admitted to membership in the association: F. B. Ernest, Cincinnati; E. F. Prichard, Paris, Ky.; Lester Laughlin, Yonkers, N. Y.; E. L. Snyder, Wayne's Field, Ohio; C. Morton, New Orleans, La.; J. Whaley, Wood Haven, L. I., N. Y.; J. S. Baldwin, Defiance, Ohio, and P. E. Schwartz, Sparks, Nev.

FEATURE TO WOODTHRUSH

Son of Olambala Makes Good in Mile Handicap —Bulcroft Rides Two Winners.

MONTREAL, Que., September 23.—After racing last for a time, C. Morton's Woodthrush, a son of Olambala—L'Alouette, closed up with a rush and accounted for the Vaudreil Handicap at one mile, which was offered as the feature of today's racing. The winner was ridden by Bulcroft and was neglected by the talent in the wagering. Vive McGee was the one to be backed, while American Eagle was third. Sedan was the only other starter.

Jockey Bulcroft scored a double during the afternoon, winning the third race in a hard drive with Lady Betty.

Mackeluaine bled during the running of the first race.

Weather conditions were again ideal and a large crowd journeyed to the track. The going was at its best and well backed horses accounted for the majority of the dashes.

B. E. Graham has decided to ship from here to Kenilworth, thence to Cuba. Graham has seven head turned out on his farm in Indiana and following the close at Kenilworth will pick them up for winter racing.

Jockey C. Howard will accompany the Graham stable from here to Windsor.

Among the stables which shipped to the Woodbine last evening were those of C. I. Wilson, A. Bullcroft and J. F. Smith. Flibbertygibbet, Charley Boy, Fair Lassie and others were in the shipment for C. I. Wilson.

J. S. Whatley's Snow Queen came out of her race yesterday in a bad way. The mare bowed and will be on the shelf for some time.

D. Kearney, who has been training for D. Raymond, a Montreal patron, will open a public stable in Cuba next winter. Mr. Kearney had some success last winter and will take some Canadian performers to the island.

W. L. Oliver has taken over the two-year-old Blarney Boy for P. Gorman.

The stables of N. K. Moody and A. L. Tempest will be shipped from here to Empire City to participate in the racing at that point. Jockeys Marianalli and Tryon will accompany the shipment.

Mortimer Mahoney leaves for Toronto to assume charge of the mutuels for a few days and thence to Laurel for the opening there.

R. L. NELSON SCORES TWICE

Retreat and Dotta's Best Win for Him at Thorncliffe—Devonshire Stockholders Meet.

TORONTO, Ontario, September 23.—A series of claiming races made up the card at Thorncliffe Park this afternoon, but the fields were evenly balanced and productive of interesting sport. R. L. Nelson provided two of the winners in Retreat and Dotta's Best, both of which had won their previous races at this meeting. Despite this fact, they returned good dividends. In both races the Nelson color-bearers led their opponents throughout, but were hard pressed to win by half-length margins.

W. C. Weant saddled his eighth winner at this meeting when Anzac took the second race.

She Devil and Hush won their respective races by narrow margins after hard stretch drives.

Ideal conditions again prevailed and the attendance was up to the mark for a midweek day.

A number of stables departed today for the Chagrin Falls meeting near Cleveland, among them B. A. Jones, E. E. Major, J. Cooper, Al Luzader, J. R. Hall, J. D. Lanahan and E. R. Miller. The majority of the others which raced at this meeting will remain here for the Woodbine Park autumn meeting, which opens Saturday.

J. C. Ferris' Retta B. broke down badly during the running of the last race yesterday.

H. Tullett's Billie B., which established a new three-quarter-mile track record here yesterday, died last night of acute indigestion.

Four head of J. K. L. Ross' string, including Boniface, His Choice, Baby Grand and Dancing Maid, arrived at Woodbine Park this morning. Boniface is a candidate for the Toronto Autumn Cup, the feature of Saturday's card.

At a meeting of the stockholders of Devonshire Park, which was held in Montreal this week, the following directors were elected: W. O. Wollett, J. F. Reed, P. J. England, Windor J. Mackenzie (Toronto), G. H. Keene, James Arthur, Wm. Garth, G. K. Bryson and Bradley Wilson.

The general office of the association has been removed to Windsor, where a meeting of the directors will take place next week for the purpose of electing a president. W. O. Wollett is most likely to be elected to that office. A voting trustee agreement is being signed by the directors, making James Arthur, G. H. Keene and Bradley Wilson trustees for three years, on the same principle as Havre de Grace is being operated.

ONCE POWERFUL "METS" NO MORE

The Metropolitan Turf Association is no more. The sale of 500 shares of Belmont Park stock held by that association Tuesday marked its passing. The "Mets," as they were called back more than a decade ago, were a power on the metropolitan tracks. The association was a clearing house for backers of races before hostile legislation was enacted in this state. Members of the association bought $50,000 of stock in the Westchester Racing Association plant when it was constructed at Belmont Park and they still retain an interest in this stock. Those who still hold their stock will receive a pro rata of the sale of the stock, whatever it brings. It is said that for some holders it will be welcomed at present. The entire holdings, it is claimed, will bring at least $35,000.

W. R. COE'S PROMISING YEARLINGS

The yearlings which W. R. Coe recently shipped from his Wyoming breeding farm to New York are now being broken by trainer W. H. Karrick. They are eight in number, as follows:

Chestnut colt by Harmonicon—Jacoba.
Chestnut colt by Harmonicon—Welsh Maid.
Chestnut colt by Harmonicon—Merry Thought II.
Chestnut filly by Harmonicon—Laughaway.
Chestnut filly by Harmonicon—Election Bet.
Chestnut filly by Harmonicon—Vale Royal.
Chestnut filly by Harmonicon—Catacomb II.
Bay filly by Hells Bells—Fair Maid.

JACK HARE JR. IN FRONT

But Only by Inches in a Desperate Struggle.

Millersburg Given Another Slice of Bad Luck—Jockey Kennedy in a Fall—Track Talk.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LEXINGTON, Ky., September 23.—One of the best finishes witnessed at this meeting was staged by Jack Hare Jr. and Ginger in the three-quarters sprint which featured today's offering at the Kentucky Jockey Club's Lexington track, Jack Hare Jr., the favorite, triumphing by inches after a punishing drive. Ginger, showing improved form over his recent previous essay, when handled by Merimee, raced into a good lead at once, closely attended by Jack Hare Jr. and King Gorin. The latter lost ground when the stretch was reached, but Jack Hare Jr. went valiantly after Ginger and steadily decreased the latter's lead until right at the end, where he made an extra game effort and succeeded in getting his nostrils in front of Ginger. The crowd cheered the winner more vociferously than any other victor of the meeting.

The running of the fifth race, which had as its starters some good youngsters, was attended by a fall for the unlucky B. Kennedy, but luckily he again escaped serious injury, though he was shaken to such an extent that he had to refrain from riding further during the afternoon.

The unlucky Millersburg, which figured in a disqualification after finishing first, again showed superiority over those she met, but failed to earn the purse, her tardy beginning resulting in her defeat by Aphie Dear, which beat her to the finish by a scant length. The winner was away forwardly and, having a clear course, showed the most speed for the entire race. After her faulty beginning, Millersburg moved up steadily and at the finish was going fastest. Last Rose landed in third place.

Aside from the two feature races the remainder of the racing card was ordinary and brought out some of the poorest here. The sport, however, was interesting and enjoyed by another big throng. Favorites again started off auspiciously when Claude Brown won in easy style, but Rapidan and Nurse Jane offended in the succeeding races. Nurse Jane's failure was due in part to the faulty ride she received from Stack.

Parol, winner of the second race, was the first to carry the Polson colors with the owner carded as trainer. Parol furnished an upset by his victory. The opponents of Parol were a bad band and on a par with those which started in the fourth race, won by War Prize.

The concluding race furnished a good struggle, with Selma G. the winner, after having led for the entire way. The battle for second place was spirited, Texas Special succeeding in outstaying Tanlac in the last stride.

The program book covering the first ten days of the Havana meeting was submitted to horsemen here and met with general favor.

Kay Spence introduced another apprentice that he hopes to mould into a good rider. The youngster is E. Scobie of Cincinnati.

The departures for Latonia began this afternoon when the horses owned by J. J. Troxler, Masterson & Rogers, J. B. Allen and M. Lowenstein were shipped.

J. Phillips was among the newcomers yesterday from Montreal and attended the meeting of the Thoroughbred Horse Association.

Colonel Whithead, in charge of the offices here of the American Remount Association, gave some interesting data relative to governmental remount activities and urged his hearers to join the remount association.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Treacy & Walker of Lexington, Ky., have sold the three-year-old bay filly Terrible Susan, by Ivan the Terrible—Brooch, by Cheviot, to A. S. Lillard.

Raymond Smith of Lexington, Ky., has sold to Simon M. Fallahay the bay two-year-old colt Jinglespur, by Luke Cates—Laura Martin, by Fernandino.

The Crack English three-year-old Allenby hopelessly broke down in the running of the St. Leger at Doncaster September 8. He had to be taken from the running ground on a float.

The stable boys at the Parisian suburban courses of Chantilly and Maisons Laffitte were again on strike for an increase of wages and privileges a few days ago. As usual, the rebellion ended in a compromise, and the boys are again at work.

Recently in Northern France (Brittany) a race of 200 miles (320 kilometers) has been arranged. The distance is to be covered on the Finistare Department roads within five days and is solely to demonstrate the endurance of Breton-bred horses.

The greatest crowd ever on an English race course except Epsom, which gathers nearly a million on its spacious free Downs, assembled to see the St. Leger run at Doncaster September 8. An indication of the immensity of the attendance was the fact that 100,000 programs had been sold and the supply exhausted one hour before racing began.

ST. LEGER WINNER AND HIS OWNER

The St. Leger winner, Caligula, is not to be sent to India by his new owner, but will be kept in England, raced for a term, and then used as a sire. He is an excellent individual, sound in every way, and cost his Indian owner, Mathurdass Goculdas, of Bombay, $40,000 the Friday before the English classic was run. Mr. Goculdas is one of the best known native owners in India. At one time he had some beautiful Arab ponies, with which he raced successfully in Bombay. He also ran Australian "Walers," and later acquired English horses. It is stated that he belongs to a community in India which absolutely forbids its members to cross the ocean.

Winner—B. g, by Disguise—Claudia, by Star Ruby (trained by G. M. Odom; bred by Mr. F. D. Knight).

Went to post at 2:16. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. PRINCE OF COMO raced under restraint until straightened out in the homestretch, then took the lead and won easing up. THE NEPHEW began slowly, but gradually improved his position and, closing up rapidly in the last eighth, outstayed BURGOYNE in the closing strides. The latter ran a good race and finished gamely. LOVER'S LANE II. set a fast pace, but retired after going a half mile in the lead.
